Labor & Sex Trafficking Impacts
All Ages, Genders, Races, & Nationalities
In Urban, Rural, & Tribal Communities

Sex and labor trafficking victims can be trafficked by their family, authority figures, or strangers; in massage parlors, agriculture, hospitality, restaurants, and in factories.

Adults and children are forced to work long hours, with little to no pay and have harsh living conditions.

Tribal communities are impacted by sex and labor trafficking, and many are kidnapped and murdered along highways since there can be limited transportation.

If you suspect signs of labor or sex trafficking, please contact 911 or the National Human Trafficking Hotline at 888-373-7888 or text HELP to 233733.
